The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. On release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

During the term of supervision, the defendant shall pay $286,434 to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), representing the loss amount caused to the IRS by the defendant's offense, and costs of prosecution in the amount of $1,907.67. Said loss amount shall be paid in monthly installment payments of not less than $3,000 until the loss amount is fully satisfied. The defendant shall provide proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer and such payments shall be mailed to:

records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer; and

7. The defendant shall apply to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

The Court grants the government's oral motion to dismiss the remaining counts of the Indictment as to this defendant.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon on March 19, 2012. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

The Court recommends that defendant be incarcerated in Lompoc, California or the Southern California area.

The Court advised the defendant of the right to appeal this judgment.

Bond is exonerated upon surrender.

SENTENCING FACTORS: The sentence is based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3553, including the applicable sentencing range set forth in the guidelines, as more particularly reflected in the court reporter's transcript.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
